YOUR SUPPORT MATTERS

Construction is a vital industry, creating buildings and spaces that connect our communities, provide jobs, and improve our society. The building industry not only erects structures but also enhances our standard of living and strengthens our economy.

EDUCATION AND CAREER EXPLORATION are essential for every student, construction worker, or anyone aspiring to build a career in the homebuilding industry. By contributing through monetary donations, sponsorships, or endowments to the California Homebuilding Foundation, you are supporting:

- The Donald Chaiken Building Industry Technology Academy (BITA) high school construction education program.
- Post-secondary scholarships for students in homebuilding programs pursuing higher education.
- College internships that support students' success through both academic learning and hands-on work experience.

Sponsorships ensure that these essential programs are stabilized and expanded. Your support helps us stay focused on our goals and enhances how we support the homebuilding industry in California.

ABOUT THE FOUNDATION

Founded in 1978, the California Homebuilding Foundation invests in the future of the homebuilding industry by establishing endowments that fund post-secondary and graduate scholarships, research grants on critical public policy issues, up-to-date construction and new home statistics, instructor training seminars, and a state-approved, project-based homebuilding curriculum for high schools.

By guiding students towards the limitless potential of future careers in homebuilding and providing industry leaders with essential tools, the California Homebuilding Foundation ensures that their legacy thrives in construction-related fields.
